

IN INVESTIGATION
OF LORIMER CASEEvidence Brought Out About Legislative Jack Pot.

FIRST WITNESS ON STAND

State Representative Charles A. White Declares He Was Given Nine Hundred Dollars as His Share of the Jack Pot—Opposing Counsel Argue on Admissibility of Evidence.Chicago, Sept. 27.—Testimony from State Representative Charles A. White, the first witness in the Lorimer election inquiry, was heard by the senate committee investigating the charges of bribery and corruption in the election of the junior senator from Illinois. After hours of argument by the opposing counsel the committee left undetermined the question of the admissibility of testimony relative to the alleged "jack pot," a fund for the payment of legislators voting for or against bills pending before the Illinois general assembly.Attorney Alfred S. Austrian, representing the Chicago Tribune, which is pushing the charges against the election of Senator Lorimer, contended vigorously that the alleged participation of legislators who voted for Senator Lorimer in the spoils of the so-called jack pot was pertinent and necessary in the investigation of the charges of the use of the corrupt methods and practices in the election of Senator Lorimer as showing a general corruption of the legislature, of which the election of the senator under fire was an integral part.

Opposed by Lorimer's Attorney.

Attorney Elbridge Heney, counsel for Senator Lorimer, stoutly opposed the admission of testimony relative to bribes which might have been paid to or received by legislators for their votes on legislative matters apart from the election of a United States senator.On the strict understanding that the action was not to be considered a precedent admitting the whole jack pot subject, Chairman Burrows permitted Witness White to answer some of the questions touching on the funds which have been referred to as the "jack pot."Representative White declared that he was met in the St. Louis hotel by Representative Robert E. Wilson, also a Democratic representative, who paid him $900 as his share of the jack pot.
White detailed his meeting with other Democratic legislators in Wilson's room, and testified that the payment was made to him in the bathroom by Wilson, who before that had conferred with another of the legislators in the same bathroom. His testimony was essentially the same as given by him in the two trials of Lee O'Neil Browne on the charge of bribery.The committee would not permit the witness at this time to relate conversations, which he said he had with Representative Joseph Clark of Vandalia relative to a third representative, Michael Link, touching the bribe payments, the ruling being preceded by a spirited clash between the opposing counsel.

OPPONENTS HARD AT WORK

Endeavoring to Prevent Gaynor's Selection by Democratic Convention.Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 27.—The opponents of Mayor Gaynor devoted the day to preparation for the struggle against his selection for the head of the Democratic state ticket, which now seems likely to be the distinguishing feature of the two days remaining before the convention.The extent of this opposition is difficult to define. Friends of James S.
Havens declare that it covers the western half of the state, and some of the more enthusiastic assert that there is no real demand for the mayor's nomination outside of New York.
At present the Havens men head the anti-Gaynor forces.The opponents of Gaynor, it is said, will urge upon Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany Hall leader, and others that it will be dangerous to depend too far upon the popular sentiment in Gay-nor's favor engendered by his attempted assassination; that but for this sympathy Judge Gaynor would not have his present lead for the nomination, and that it is not strong enough to weather the strain of a hard campaign.

Mysterious Fire Destroys Boat.

Green Bay, Wis., Sept. 27.—The launch Echo, owned by Haas Brothers of this city, and used to convey passengers to and from Red Banks, a summer resort, was burned to the water's edge. The boat is a total wreck, but is well covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Irrigation Congress Meets.

Pueblo, Colo., Sept. 27.—Laying down the policy that "no gag rule shall nourish here," and reiterating the moto of the congress, "Save the forest, store the floods, reclaim the deserts, make homes on the lands," President Benjamin A. Fowler of Phoenix, Ariz., opened the eighteenth National Irrigation congress here.

BUMPER CORN CROP ASSURED

Late Rains Helped That in Wisconsin.Madison, Wis., Sept. 27.—Evidence that corn will be a bumper crop piles up as reports come in from various sections of the state.The cutting of the crop has been started in many fields and husking will soon begin. Recent rains helped the crop. The stalks are unusually heavy and farmers are assured of an abundant supply of fodder, which is especially desired on account of the short hay crop. The rains have wrought a great transformation in the fields. Throughout the dairy section in Central Wisconsin there is now an abundance of grass, which in less than two months has caused an increase in the milk supply of over 50 per cent.Beets are growing rapidly and promise a fair crop. The beet sugar factories at Madison and at Janesville will start about the middle of October. Late potatoes have been saved by the rains.Tobacco is two weeks later than the average year's crop as a result of unfavorable replanting weather and conditions in the spring. Dry weather at replanting time has made the crop short of yield. It is predicted that about 85 per cent of the entire planting will be harvested in this belt.
About 70 per cent is now in the sheds rains having given the harvest a set back. Field buying is proceeding quietly and about one-third of the crop is said to be under contract.

SOUTH DAKOTA AFTER RATES

Prepares Its Formal Complaint for Interstate Railway Commission.Pierre, S. D., Sept. 27.—At a meeting here the state railway commission made its formal complaint to the interstate railway commission, in which the latter is asked to take up the matter of freight rates for South Dakota, not only on a complaint that the present rates are excessive, but also in protest against the proposed increase in rates which has been fixed for the 1st of November.The state commission passed a resolution requesting a majority of the interstate commission to sit at the hearing, which will be at some point in the state early in October. The complaint includes a long list of schedules on like commodities from South Dakota points; and comparative rates from North Dakota points; for the same class of commodities, in which the difference on hauls of practically the same length is as much as 50 per cent in some cases. The complaint includes every road operating in the state.

Drowns in Cheese Vat.

Richland Center, Wis., Sept. 27.— The sixteen-month-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald of Twin Bluffs was drowned in a cheese vat. The little fellow had been dead some time when found.

Farmer Burns His Own Hay.

Miller, S. D., Sept. 27.—D. W. Taylor lost 300 tons of hay by fire. He was burning a firebreak to protect the hay and the blaze got away from him.
Hay is worth $8 and $9 a ton.

Took the Advice.

The president of one of the prominent railway corporations in America was making a stirring address to an audience of young men and dwell with particular emphasis on the necessity of making a good appearance."When you are looking for work," he said, "be careful that you are presentable. If you have only $24 in the world, spend $20 for a suit of clothes, $3.50 for a pair of shoes, 50 cents for a hair cut and shave. Then walk up to the job wherever it is and ask for it like a man."This advice was greeted with great applause and the railway president sat down amid a storm of cheers. The very next morning a dapper looking young fellow walked into the outer office of the orator and, handing a note to the clerk, said, "Please give this to the president." The note read as follows:"I have paid $20 for this suit of clothes, $3.50 for a pair of shoes and 50 cents for a hair cut and a shave. I have walked from Harlem, and I would like a job as conductor on your road."

He got the job.

He Didn't Borrow.

A reference book on Russian history being noted right on the spot, the literary hack said he guessed he would go around to Clarke's to borrow his.
He went to Clarke's, but he came back without the book."Didn't he have it?" the man's wife asked."He did, but I hadn't the nerve to ask for it. Clarke's plan of advertising book borrowers scared me off. Before I had a chance to mention Russian history he steered me past shelves where every few inches a dummy stood sandwiched in between real books. The labels on all the books were conspicuous, black lettering on white, and they set forth some mighty interesting statistics.""Three Musketeers," borrowed March 25 by John Smith. Not returned. After I had read about a dozen of those dummy labels I said it was a fine day, wasn't it. Clarke said yes, it was, and I came away. To advertise to subsequent visitors that I had borrowed one of Clarke's best books was a little too much notoriety for me."—New York Sun

GOING TO CHICAGOWill Have Charge of Republican Headquarters There.Winona, Minn., Sept. 27.—"Contrary reports went out from Chicago while you were in that city, one to the effect that you would support Sidney Anderson as the Republican candidate for congress from this district and the other that you had declared positively that you would not lend any assistance to your recent opponent in the primaries. Is there any truth in either of the reports?"This question was asked of Congressman James A. Tawney in his office here."I made no such statement, nor would I consent to an interview on matters pertaining to the First district while in Chicago," replied the congressman."But, Mr. Tawney, will you or will you not support Mr. Anderson?" he was asked."I must decline to make a positive statement at this time, because it is not up to me to declare myself. I may and I may not have something to say in regard to that in the future, but now I will say nothing," replied Mr.
Tawney.Mr. Tawney will leave Winona temporarily early next week for Chicago, where he will take charge of the Chicago office of the national Republican congressional headquarters.On Nov. 12, together with the other members of the appropriations committee, Mr. Tawney will sail from New York for Panama to examine the estimates for 1912.

WOMAN CANDIDATES A TIE

Lot Cast in Becker County and Miss Kahler Declared the Nominee.Detroit, Minn., Sept. 27.—The contest between Mrs. Caroline C. Auxer and Miss Lulu H. Kahler for the Republican nomination for county superintendent resulted in a tie vote, each receiving 1,971 votes. The canvassing board in casting the lot found that it fell to Miss Kahler and she was declared the winner. There is a strong likelihood that a recount will be demanded by Mrs. Auxer and a contest stated. Mrs. Auxer has served four years as county superintendent and the fight against her was mainly due to her strict enforcement of the compulsory education law.

Cabinet Members Meet.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The cabinet house party at the White House is in full swing. Eight of the nine members of the president's official family moved in. They held a formal session in the cabinet room of the executive offices during the forenoon and continued their informal discussion of affairs of state. During the late afternoon the cabinet officers returned to their respective departments, but gathered again at the White House for dinner and a long evening talk on the south veranda.ITS SELECTION

GETS LETTER FROM SHERMAN

Communication From the Vice President Creates a Sensation—Asks Investigation of the Charge That His Selection as Temporary Chairman of the Saratoga Convention Was Brought About Through Trickery.Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27.—By a vote of 22 to 15, the Republican state committee at a special meeting reaffirmed its selection of Vice President Sherman over Theodore Roosevelt as temporary chairman of the state convention.This action, a victory for the old guard, was taken after Vice President James S. Sherman had created a sensation with a letter asking that the committee investigate the charge that his selection as temporary chairman was brought about through trickery and stating that if the charges were substantiated he would not serve.After a heated argument lasting nearly two hours, in which the leaders of both the old guard and the progressives gave sharp expression of their convictions, the committee by a vote of 32 to 15 resolved, "That Mr.
Sherman be informed that his selection was made without misrepresentation as an answer to his letter."The committee had scarcely gone into session when Chairman Woodruff announced that he had a letter from Vice President Sherman, which he read. The letter follows:

No Ambition to Preside.

"My Dear Governor Woodruff—As you know, I had no ambition to preside over the state convention. As you also know, I was asked to preside not alone because I was part of the Taft administration, but because it was known that, in response to the president's request, I had spoken of the administration and for him on several occasions in different sections of the country; because it was known I had been a staunch supporter of the president during his entire term of office; because I was known to be an especially ardent supporter and advocate of the basic principles of the party. My name was presented in the state committee in accordance with custom in state and nation. I solicited no man's support. I consented to act as a service to my party, not to gratify a personal ambition. In that respect I had none."The charge has since been made in some quarters that my selection was accomplished in the state committee by means of deception and misrepresentation."I do not believe it. So far as I am personally concerned, I know the statement to be absolutely unfounded. Even to do the party service I am unwilling to serve in the face of such a charge if well founded. I therefore ask that at the committee meeting the charge so publicly made be with equal directness and publicity investigated; that the majority of the state committee which originally favored my selection may each declare whether or not his preference was based upon any statement which bore any color of misrepresentation or deception, for if such be the fact I ask that my name be not presented to the convention for its temporary presiding officer."

Barnes Calls on Griscom.

The reading of the letter brought William Barnes, Jr., of Albany, leader of the old guard, to his feet with the remark that he had read the statement attributed to Chairman Griscom of the New York county committee to the effect that Mr. Sherman's selection at the meeting of the committee on August 16 had been procured through trickery and fraud. Then, turning to the New York members, Barnes said:"I suggest that if Mr. Griscom has any information warranting his charges against the twenty members of the state committee who voted for Mr. Sherman that he make it known here and now."Pointing his finger at Griscom, he demanded to know what basis he had for the information given by him to the press."The name of Mr. Sherman was not known to any member of the New York delegation as prospective chairman of the convention in advance of the meeting," said Mr. Griscom, speaking with emphasis. "In my case I was not informed of the intention to elect him until within fifty minutes of the beginning of the meeting. I informed Mr. Wadsworth that I did not think it wise to take such action.""It had been stated in the papers that former President Roosevelt was going to the convention as a delegate, and I believe that the proper place for a former president was on the platform. I informed Mr. Wadsworth that I thought the proposed action unfair, and that if Mr. Sherman's name were presented to the committee without consultation among any large number of members I would oppose it and put up the name of Colonel Roosevelt. I also told Mr. Ward the same thing.""I understood from Mr. Ward that President Taft approved of Mr. Sherman's selection, which I thought strange, inasmuch as Mr. Taft had told me but a few days before that he favored consultation with Colonel Roosevelt in all matters pertaining to

JAMES S. SHERMAN.

Choice of Committee to Preside Over Convention.the Republican party in New York state. I have stated that the meeting was surrounded with deceit and it certainly was, so far as I was concerned."Several New York county committeemen backed up Mr. Griscom in his assertion that Ward had indicated that President Taft had favored Mr.
Sherman for the chairmanship.Representative Fassett then moved that the matter be laid on the table, but Barnes opposed the motion and Fassett withdrew it. Herbert Parsons then said:"As I said, you will not fully investigate this matter unless you also ascertain what was said to the members who stayed away and if they were informed that there was a scheme to beat Colonel Roosevelt."Mr. Barnes jumped to his feet and cried:"Will anybody doubt that the selection of Mr. Sherman was to beat Mr.
Roosevelt?""There," rejoined Mr. Parsons, "Mr.
Barnes has said enough to confirm what Mr. Griscom has said about the use of the president's name. I now renew the motion to lay on the table."

This motion was lost, 19 to 18.

The motion was then carried that Mr. Sherman's selection as temporary chairman was made without misrepresentation.ROOSEVELT LEADS THE PROGRESSIVESFormer President Confident of Success at Saratoga.Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Saratoga seethes in a political turmoil on the eve of one of the most important Republican state conventions ever held.
The members of the old guard are making their battle on the issue, "Shall Theodore Roosevelt rule the Republican party in New York?"Colonel Roosevelt reached here and within five minutes had plunged into the situation, taking full command of the progressive forces and rounding up the wavering unpledged delegates.
The ebb and flow of the political tides finally set in for the progressives and the colonel, after a conference with his lieutenants, repeated his declaration made at Troy, N. Y."We have beaten them to a frazzle," he said.Vice President Sherman came in from Utica and went quietly to his room. Few knew of his arrival. Mr.
Sherman had nothing to say and spent most of the day talking with friends on the veranda of the hotel. Mr.
Sherman, it was learned, entertains no very exalted hopes of his election to the temporary chairmanship, but he says he is in the fight.With the arrival of Colonel Roosevelt the old guard doubled efforts to capture the palm of victory. Lieutenants of William Barnes, Jr., who is leading the old guard forces, say that they have made a few gains, but are not ready to claim a majority of the convention. The wavering delegates are being eagerly sought by both sides.Mr. Griscom announced the progressives had 574 delegates out of the 1,015 in the convention, which would give them a good working majority.
He said that since the arrival of Mr.
Roosevelt the progressives had gained four votes.

Takes Broader Angle.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—The ratemaking problem that confronts the interstate commerce commission in its examination of railroads took on a broader angle here when representatives of the Burlington road appearing before that body asserted the right to earn a reasonable return on the value of its property and insisted the amount of the return had no limitations as long as the rates were reasonable and not burdensome.

Nothing More to Be Said.

"My wife always lets me have the last word," remarked the meek looking man."Indeed!" exclaimed his friend in tones which implied a doubt of the other's veracity."She does, really. Whenever I say "Yes, my dear, you are quite right," she stops talking immediately."QUICK ACTION IN STRENUOUS LIVING.

A Long Day in the Life of an English Lady in 1791.As for industrious idleness, which is held to blame for the wrecking of our nervous systems, it was not unknown to an earlier generation. Mme. le Brun assures us that in her youth pleasure loving people would leave Brussels early in the morning, travel all day to Paris to hear the opera and travel all night home. "That," she observes—as well she may—"was considered being fond of the opera."A paragraph in one of Horace Walpole's letters gives us the record of a day and a night in the life of an English lady—sixteen hours of "strain" which would put New York to the blush. "I heard the Duchess of Gordon's journal of last Monday," he writes to Miss Berry in the spring of 1791. "She first went to hear Handel's music in the abbey; she then clambered over the benches and went to Hast-ings's trial in the hall, after dinner to the play, then to Lady Ligon's assembly, after that to Ranelagh and returned to Mrs. Hobert's fair table; gave a ball herself in the evening of that morning, into which she must have got a good way, and set out for Scotland the next day. Hercules could not have accomplished a quarter of her labors in the same space of time."—Atlantic

A Pretty Poor Portrait.

A Chinaman of very high rank had his portrait painted, and when it was finished the painter requested him to inquire of the passersby what they thought of it. The other agreed and asked the first comer:

"Do you think this portrait like?"

"The hat is extremely like," replied the critic.The subject of the portrait asked a similar question of a second stranger, who answered that the clothes seemed to be exactly reproduced. He was about to interrogate a third when the painter stopped him and said impatiently:"The resemblance of the hat and clothes is of no importance. Ask this gentleman what he thinks of the face."On being asked this question the stranger hesitated a very long time, but at last he replied:

"The beard and hair are first rate."

Boy Almost Killed by Bull.

Becker, Minn., Sept. 27.—Herman Eckhof, sixteen years of age, living two miles south of here, was barely saved by his father from being gored to death by a bull. The animal dislocated the boy's shoulder, broke his leg and fell on part of his body.

Her Little Joke.

"When Harold proposed to me," said Maude, "I told him to go and ask papa."
"But you don't really care for him!" said Maymie. "Of course not. But I do so love to play little jokes on papa."

BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY

C. J. Evensta, Proprietor Rex Hotel, Accused of Selling Liquor
After Hours

AFTER 11 P. M. SEPT. 21

He is Held to the Grand Jury in the Sum of $250—Case Heard
This Morning

Two cases against C. J. Evensta, proprietor of the Rex hotel, were called in municipal court this morning, and heard by Judge J. H. Warner. County Attorney W. A. Fleming appeared for the state and T. C. Blewitt appeared for Evensta.

The first case was upon a complaint sworn out by Capt. Hurley which stated that Evensta sold eight glasses of beer to Andrew Lindstrom and Andrew Backstrom between the hours of eleven P. M. of Sept. 21 and five A. M. of Sept. 22. The case occupied most of the morning, several witnesses being examined. The court held the defendant to the grand jury in the sum of $250 bonds.

The other against the same part was on a complaint drawn by Capt. Hurley and stated that C. J. Evensta kept a public inn where liquors were sold, the same being a public drinking place and a hotel and that it was open and not closed between the hours above mentioned.

On motion of County Attorney Fleming this case was dismissed.

The larceny case of the state versus Charles Carter and Ed Monte was continued to Sept. 28, at ten A. M.

CROSBY BALL TEAM

This Team Claims the Championship of the Cuyuna Iron Range

The Duluth Herald prints the following in reference to the Crosby baseball team:

"The Crosby baseball team claims the championship of the Cuyuna range. The Crosby team has played steady and consistent ball the past season, making a fine record. The players are all Crosby boys, and in another season they are confident that they will stand a very good chance of winning the championship of the two ranges.

"Manager A. E. Brink of the Crosby team has made the following selection of what he considers the all star team of the Cuyuna range: Catchers, Parker of Brainerd and Peterburg of Aitkin; pitchers, Sager of Crosby, Bush of Brainerd, Latimer of Crosby and Rhodes of Cuyuna; first base, Hollister of Crosby; second base, Richards of Deerwood; third base, Bowman of Crosby; shortstop, Bobbie of Cuyuna; right field, Lovdahl of Crosby; left field, Rice of Deerwood; center field, Hudson of Crosby; utility, Wilson of Aitkin.

Notice

To the many friends that have so freely and generously given money and provisions, on the list taken up by Esther Dahlstedt, for the ill-stricken family, Johnson's on Norwood street, I return my heartiest thanks.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. JOHN JOHNSON,
1107 Norwood Street.

Spring Water

Brown's Spring Water is the best drinking water in the state, there is no red settling in it, it does not have to be banded in galvanized iron. It will not rust your tin pails. It is absolutely pure, clear and tasteless.

Some people say they are buying Brown's spring water that are mistaken. The Hayes wagons are absolutely the only wagons selling spring water. Ask for a sample pail and be convinced that what we tell you is true.

LEAVES HER HOME— ARRESTED IN DULUTH

Duluth News-Tribune Prints a Story of Alleged Mrs. Ruth Mildred Sherlun

FOUND WITH DULUTH WAITER

Told Police She Had Left Home When Husband Failed to Provide For Her

The Duluth News-Tribune prints the following story concerning a Mrs. Ruth Mildred Sherlun:

"George Vining, waiter at a local restaurant, arrested at an East Superior street lodging house in company with Mrs. Ruth Mildred Sherlun, of Brainerd, early Sunday morning, may face a prison sentence if charges are preferred by John Sherlun, Brainerd plumber, who was yesterday notified by wire of the arrest.

"At the time of the apprehension, which was made by Lieutenant Fritz and Sergeant John Roberg, Mrs. Sherlun gave her name as Fay Russell and her age as 17. Vining said his name was Edward Russell and that he was the woman's husband.

"The police say the woman has since admitted that Mrs. Sherlun is her right name, also stating that she is but 15 years old. If true, this would make Vining's offense a felony punishable with a maximum of five years imprisonment.

"The police discovered a flaw in the girl's first story, when conflicting accounts of their alleged marriage were told by Vining and herself. They were arrested at 101 East Superior street on complaint of an acquaintance of the woman.

"Mrs. Sherlun told the police she had left home when her husband failed to provide for her. Vining said that he took her from the restaurant where she was working because he thought she was too young to be working at such a place."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

This is an age in which education forms an important part in the advancement of young men. The expression has been often heard made by young men who have quit school that they wished they had taken advantage of the educational opportunities offered them. To those who realize their need for learning and who are ambitious, the Y. M. C. A. will soon offer an excellent opportunity.

The secretary is arranging a course of study for a night school to be held in the Y. M. C. A. building. Among the studies are arithmetic, penmanship, letter writing, mechanical drawing, public speaking, English for new Americans, shop mechanics, and others. Each study will have a competent instructor. In order to pay him for his services a small tuition will be charged.

The secretary desires that those wishing to take advantage of this offer make an inquiry of him for further information. The school will be opened some time in the first week of October.

These studies will all be interesting and a great help will be derived from them. It is hoped that a large class will be enrolled in each study. If you are interested plan on taking a course and interest others. This is an excellent chance for the young men of Brainerd to take advantage of their winter evenings. Many have shown their willingness to enroll. Are you going to be one of them?

Gymnasium classes begin in the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening at 8 P. M., Oct. 3.

All the men of the city can take regular exercise at the gymnasium. We do not need to be told that regular exercise increases circulation and digestion, strengthens the liver, lungs, kidneys and heart, reduces superfluous flesh or builds up any part of the body. What we do know is we have tried exercising alone in our room and soon tired of it. In the gymnasium are men seeking the same lines as we are and then we make it interesting for each other. Let us get together and be the best physical men in the state for a town of our size. We love to look at a 50 or 60 year young man, but a 30 year old man makes us feel sad. Regular exercise for everybody drives away diseases and worry. If we want a strong, healthy body we can have it. Come and sign up for the classes while they are easy and simple and avoid sore muscles the first night or two. The graded gymnasium exercises adopted by the Physical Director's society are to be used. Teachers, carpenters, preachers, blacksmiths, bankers, masons, clerks, boilermakers, woodsmen, any one, can become healthy and add years to his life by regular exercises, live happier and make more money because of a clearer brain.

A CARD TO VOTERS

I am a candidate for county attorney, and respectfully ask your support at the polls. I have lived in Brainerd almost 28 years, and, during that time have held several public offices. If my record, either as a citizen or as a public officer, is such that you cannot support me, it is, of course, your privilege to vote against me. If, on the other hand, I have performed my duty as a citizen and as a public officer, I hope to receive your support. I know that I have always tried to do right, and, if elected, I shall continue to try to do right. I believe I understand the duties of county attorney and the growing needs of the county. I shall be guided by these in the performance of the duties of the office, if elected.

Yours Truly,
W. A. FLEMING.

It Saved His Leg

"All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infallible for skin eruptions, eczema, salt rheum, boils, fever sores, burns, scalds, cuts and piles. 25c at all druggists.

Notice

To the Voters of Crow Wing County: I hereby announce myself as an independent candidate for coroner, and respectfully solicit the support of all voters at the general election Nov. 8th.

Respectfully,
C. A. NELSON.

Don't Break Down

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters, the matchless tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at all druggists.

The Same Store In a New Dress

Our moving into a new location does not, in the least, change the policy of our store. You will find our guarantee policy still in effect. That is, we want you to permit us to adjust with you any unsatisfactory purchase if you have ever secured that kind from our store. We want you to find every purchase all that we represented it to be and further, if any purchase is not all that you expect, let us know. If you do not get absolute satisfaction, in every particular, it will be your fault. We are ready to right every claim.

We are better prepared to care for your wants now than ever before and can insure you the greatest of satisfaction.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Grand

The vaudeville at the Grand this week has two artists, Ben Preston and Isabel Vaughn. Preston is a knock-about comedian who does some remarkable acrobatic work. One of his most difficult feats is jumping over a table and landing on his hands with his chin touching the floor. Miss Vaughn, the Gypsy violinist, plays classical and popular selections on the violin and the beauty of her tone and her artistic playing gained her a curtain call. Her double stopping in "Annie Laurie" is very good. The moving pictures are interesting.

"Bobbie Blake" Sept. 29th.

The New Ulm Journal has the following mention of "Bobbie Blake" the play which will be given for the benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal church on Thursday evening, Sept. 29th, at the Brainerd opera house.

"Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Harvey, of Mason City, Iowa, who came here several weeks ago to stage the musical comedy "Bobbie Blake" and who were instrumental in securing some of the best local talent to take part in the performance, certainly proved beyond a doubt that they were experts in this line. After a comparatively short period allotted for rehearsing, the performance took place at Turner Theatre last Friday evening and was highly successful, being given without a single hitch.

"The audience was large and appreciative and the play netted the Ladies Guild of St. Peter's Episcopal church, under whose auspices it was given, over a hundred dollars. During their stay in this city Mr. and Mrs. Harvey made many friends. They transacted all business with snap and vigor."

No need now to get less value for a nickel than you've had for a dime. All stores sell both sizes. You won't get the right cigar if you just ask for a light cigar. Strong tobacco is even harsher when harvested green for the sake of color. The Robert Burns and Little Bobbie are more than color-mild, more than wrapper-mild. The filler has the same gentle qualities. Made of tobacco which is mild by nature—which is allowed to ripen fully on the plantation and then fully cured before it reaches the bench. You can smoke 'em all day and your health won't notice the difference.

ARAB ENCAMPMENTS.

The Crowded Tents In Which the Shepherd Warriors Live.

Arabs are true Ishmaelites. Their life is a constant wandering. They live entirely on the produce of their herds. Their tents are quickly taken down or put up and easy of transport. They are made of camel's hair, loosely woven, supported on poles or long guy ropes. They protect the occupants from the hot sun, but not from the rain, and in winter the encampments are uncomfortable places.

The interior is crowded with all the belongings of these shepherd warriors—camel saddles and gaudy saddle-bags, rifles and ammunition, hunting dogs and falcons. The women occupy one half; the men use the other, partitioned off by a brightly colored curtain. The whole of the front of the tent being open, there is no privacy. The average tent measures twenty yards by six.

The chief of the tribe, however, owns many tents, and he has for his own use one giant structure, sometimes spread over a length of thirty-six yards. In his other tents the chief keeps his numerous wives, who have a certain proportion of their master's flocks and herds to look after. Having a separate tent for each wife, he thus does away with all chance of domestic quarrels.—Argonaut.

THREE YEARS LATE.

A Train That Won the Behind Time Record Medal.

A train of a railway system in the southwest once arrived at its destination nearly three years late. The circumstances were these:

The train left Bolivar, just across Galveston bay from Galveston, on Sept. 8, 1900, and was caught in the great storm that so nearly destroyed the Texas city. Bolivar is seventy-five miles from Beaumont, which was the point of the train's destination. Before the train had traveled far on its journey it was caught in the storm. Thirty miles of the track were washed away, and the train was left stranded on a sandy waste. Many persons who lived on Bolivar peninsula were saved from death by taking refuge in the train. After the storm subsided they walked to Bolivar with the passengers, but the abandoned train was left on the prairie.

The storm bankrupted the railway, and no effort to rescue the engine and cars was made until 1903. Had not the road suffered so seriously in that storm the property would have proved of great value a few months later, when oil was struck at Beaumont. In 1903, however, the road underwent repairs, when the train was drawn into Beaumont, where it was greeted by a cheering crowd.—New York Press.

The Diplomatic Room.

One of the most interesting and most visited places in Washington is the diplomatic reception room in the department of state, where the secretary of state transacts his business with the envoys of foreign governments. This room is close to the secretary's office and looks southward to the Potomac, the Washington monument looming up with stately effect at the left. Thursday of each week is set apart for the diplomats, who are received in this famous room by the secretary of state or the official who may be acting in his absence. The room itself when not occupied by the foreign representatives is open to the public. In it most of our treaties of recent years have been signed, and many have been the notable assemblages gathered within its walls.—New York Press.

Prices Paid by Forty-niners.
Here is the price list on the "carte" of the Eldorado hotel of Placerville.

Cal. in the days when it entertained the forty-niners. "Payable in advance." It proclaims: "gold scales at the end of bar."

A "square meal, with dessert," is priced at $3, and other items that probably interested the patrons of the Eldorado are set forth as follows: Beef, Mexican prime cut, $1.50; beef, uplong, $1.50; beef, plain, $1; beef with a potato, fair size, $1.25; beef, tame, from the states, $1.50; also two potatoes, medium size, 50 cents; two potatoes, peeled, 75 cents; hash, 18 grade, 75 cents; hash, 18 carat, $1; rice pudding, plain, 75 cents; rice pudding and brandy peaches, $1.—Los Angeles Times.

Eleven In a Bed.

In early Victorian times the workman was accustomed to rough it. Isabella Fyvie Mayo in her "Recollections" mentions that one flourishing firm of bakers—patronized by royalty—"kept eleven men and had only one bed for them all. During the twenty-four hours they occupied it turn and turn about. One of these unfortunates was generally in Charing Cross hospital, and the 'master' got a reputation for generosity by his yearly subscription to its funds."

PALESTINE.

Many Ways In Which It Strikingly Resembles California.

Palestine is more like the state of California than any other in the Union in everything except size. It lies between longitude 34 degrees 30 minutes and 36 degrees 30 minutes east and between latitude 30 degrees 30 minutes and 33 degrees 45 minutes north. It is practically a California reduced to about one-twentieth in size, but markedly similar in general topography, climate, vegetation and agricultural and economic possibilities.

Like California, Palestine is longest from north to south. Like California, too, it has both very high mountains, having an elevation of 9,000 to 10,000 feet, and very deep depressions. The Dead sea, 1,200 feet below sea level, is the greatest depression known, and the Death valley of California, it is situated in the southern extremity of the country.

In Palestine, just as in California, we have a dry, warm season and a humid and more temperate one. The rainy season extends from October to May and the dry season from May to October.

Palestine is even more favored than California with regard to the winter temperature. Although the thermometer rises as high in summer in Palestine as in California, with extremes of 110 degrees to 115 degrees F., though not so often, it very rarely drops in the winter to the freezing point. Snow is rare, even on the plateaus, and our farmers are practically safe from any damage by frost over nearly the entire extent of the country.—From Aaron Aaronsohn's "Agricultural and Botanical Explorations in Palestine."
